

Sally Sheinman – ‘What Makes You, You?’

52 Artworks based on personal stories of homelessness, hardship and recovery.

Please note, images displayed in the catalogue are low resolution and do not represent final print quality. Texts and artwork displayed in grey are unavailable for sponsorship.

Come along to our open day hosted by the Holy Sepulchre Church on Thursday 28th November! We are celebrating and showcasing the artwork at our open day event to understand the critical work we do during the cold winter months to support the homeless and those in hardship. For information and to RSVP please contact michelle@northamptonhopecentre.org.uk

	I ran away from home when 11 years old. Police put me into children’s refuge. Went to London to the night shelters when about 16/17. Then became pregnant with first daughter at 18. Daughter passed away aged 11. Came to Northamptonshire and lived with someone but was subjected to domestic violence and put into women’s refuge. Then became homeless again and started drinking. Rehoused into a flat currently. Came to Hope about 5 years ago which helped to socialise and provided a warm space with food. Hope has very nice people which makes it a place to come to. Sometimes help by sorting through donations. inspired by Anonymous	number 808	lds	Artwork sponsored by Rosie Brixworth Wills

	Who I am today wasn't built overnight, the confident independent strong person most see from the outside ,although always been there, sometimes hidden behind the smile I have pulled myself out of some dark places, had my insecurities, and heartaches along my journey too. I have been through quite a lot over the years but that has shaped the person I am now, of which I am quite proud. Fiercely passionate and put my all in to what I do, and the people that surround me. Honesty &amp; trust is huge to me, once broken there is no going back. I'm always looking to shape myself to be a better version of me for my future journey whatever that may bring. inspired by Debbie Russell	number 801	Ids8 Sponsored by Marianne Avery LinkedIn Confidence Coach.

	I am the most kindhearted but I could kill if needed. I am on cloud nine I until am in the gutter. I laugh hysterically and I could cry a river. I am generous to a fault but I will hoard and covet things. I can go all day without eating then eat all day without thinking. I am fun and excitable when drunk. I am argumentative and nasty when drunk. I would give my life for the world, yet the world owns me a living. I am the second coming with love. I am evil personified with hate. I AM BIPOLAR. This could describe anybody but a bipolar person will feel them stronger. It's a very tiring place to be for us. inspired by Karen	number 797	Ids12

What Makes Me Me? If that is the question, I might need more space. Basically you and I are made of 90% carbon and water based liquid the other 10% would be grey matter, commonly called a brain and a transmitter, receiver device called, eyes, ears, mouth and also a sensory device called a nose. I don't mean to say that we are automatons or robots. I think that if we as homo sapiens thought less enjoyed ourselves more and pleased ourselves more the world would be a better place. And don't forget!! if you don't feel well, stay in bed, drink tea with sympathy and get better...
